

A Tree is a Plant

by Clyde Robert Bulla

Illustrated by Stacey Schuett

Study the pictures.
Is this a book of realistic fiction or nonfiction?

Explain to your partner.

Comprehension Questions:

1. A tree is a _____.
2. The biggest plant that grows is a _____.
3. Most trees grow from _____.

Comprehension Questions:

4. Seeds can be _____ or grow from falling to the ground.

5. The seed begins to grow
when the _____ comes out and warms the earth.

Comprehension Questions:

6. The tree starts out as a _____ with _____ leaves.

7. Apple-blossom time is in the _____.

Comprehension Questions:

8. The apples are ready to eat in the _____.

9. They are large and _____.

Comprehension Questions:

10. Name the things of a tree that we can see:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Comprehension Questions:

11. What part of the tree can we not see? _____
12. Why are the roots important to the tree? _____

Comprehension Questions:

13. Is the tree dead in the winter when its leaves are gone and it is bare? _____

14. When the sun warms the earth in the spring, the _____ will grow.

Comprehension Questions:

15. When do you like apple trees the best? Give a a reason why. _____

Science Experiment:

What happens to water after it reaches the leaves of the tree?

Turn and talk with a partner.

Let's read the Science Experiment:

What is your hypothesis? What do you think will happen?

Turn and talk with a partner.

Let's set up a data sheet:

A Tree is a Plant

Name: _____

Hypothesis: I think that ...

Day #1

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #2

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #3

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #4

Observations:

Drawing:

A Tree is a Plant

Name: _____

Hypothesis: I think that ...

Day #1

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #2

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #3

Observations:

Drawing:

Day #4

Observations:

Drawing: