

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Create a thinking map to organize your thoughts, then write about the 3 major parts of the story, Jan's New Home.

Me on the Map – Prompt #1

Copy the vocabulary words in the order we have placed them according to their size.

Draw a quick illustration of these words and label each drawing with the correct vocabulary word.

Me on the Map – Prompt #1

Copy the vocabulary words in the order we have placed them according to their size.

Draw a quick illustration of these words and label each drawing with the correct vocabulary word.

Me on the Map – Prompt #1

Copy the vocabulary words in the order we have placed them according to their size.

Draw a quick illustration of these words and label each drawing with the correct vocabulary word.

Me on the Map – Prompt #1

Copy the vocabulary words in the order we have placed them according to their size.

Draw a quick illustration of these words and label each drawing with the correct vocabulary word.

Me on the Map – Prompt #1

Copy the vocabulary words in the order we have placed them according to their size.

Draw a quick illustration of these words and label each drawing with the correct vocabulary word.

How would you describe each of your special places in the world?

1 - My country is the USA. It is.....

2 - My state is Tennessee. It looks like.....

3 - My town is Bartlett. I like Bartlett because....

4 - My street name is_____.

I would describe my house as.....
