

Read the story below. Underline the main idea in green. Underline the details in yellow.

Dogs at Work

Border collie dogs do a lot to help people on the farms. Border collies are smart dogs. When the farmer gives a signal, they run, bark, and move the sheep into the pen. They do not scare the other animals. They move the geese where the farmer wants them to be. Border collies love to work, run, and play. They make the farm pleasant and safe.

The sentences below form a paragraph to answer the questions, "How do border collies help the farmer with the farm?" However, the sentences are all mixed up. Put the sentences together to make a paragraph that makes sense. Be sure to follow TIDE as you put the paragraph together.

-----
They move the geese where for the farmers.
-----

-----
Border collies are smart dogs.
-----

-----
They make the farm a pleasant and safe place.
-----

-----
Border collies do a lot to help on the farms.
-----

-----
The farmer gives a signal and the border collie run, bark, and move the sheep into the pen.
-----